

Los Angeles Times

L.A. Unleashed

All things animal in Southern California and beyond

Saturday, Nov. 21, multimedia artist Rachel Schmeidler hosts the art exhibition "Hollywood Least Wanted 3D" at downtown art gallery Riviera + Riviera, 1100 S. Hope Street, from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. Schmeidler aims to raise awareness about homeless pets facing euthanasia at animal shelters with the exhibition, which showcases her anaglyphic 3D photos of shelter dogs. Adoptable pets from L.A. Dept. of Animal Services shelters will be present, as will special guests Zachary Quinto ("Heroes"; "Star Trek") and his dog Noah. Schmeidler's earlier series, "Hollywood Most Wanted," will also be on display for the first time in 3D. Attendees are encouraged to RSVP online and make a \$20 donation in advance of the event (you'll receive a raffle ticket and 3D glasses). All donations and 50% of art sales will benefit the Animal Welfare Trust Fund, which provides support, supplies and veterinary equipment to L.A.'s municipal city shelters. More information at HollywoodLeastWanted.com. - See more at: <http://latimesblogs.latimes.com/unleashed/2009/11/animal-lovers-calendar-weekend-of-november-21-november-22.html#sthash.NZwimutS.dpuf>